

COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS

HELP US, HELP OTHERS.

We understand things are uncertain at the moment, but the one thing to come from this pandemic we are sure about is the power of community spirit.

Today Persimmon is delighted to announce that our volunteer army are here to help local community groups. Hundreds of our staff from across the UK have registered for our Voluntary Programme and you can access help by emailing

Need something picking up?

Want someone taken to an appointment?

Persimmon are here to help.

All our staff currently not working their usual pattern remain on full pay and we can think of no better thing to do for our local communities than to provide support at this difficult time.
